His no: dated 5th November 1911 forwarding in original. General and Revenue Secretary's roo: G.24 G.M.69-11-13 dated 4th November 1911, re the closing of post office at Chendraguttee, Sorab Taluk

Has the honor to state that it is reported that the village of Chendraguttee consists of 163 houses, that there are a School and a police Station, that there is no post office anywhere in the vicinity, that the nearest post office is Sora which is at a distance of

GPB—1.50.000—20-6 11

12 miles. There can hardly be any doubt that much inconvenience would (b)

be caused to the public by closing the postoffice at Chendragutti, on financial grounds alone The arrangement of serving the village, twice a week by village post-man, does not go far to meet the wishes of the people. Chendragutti is a malnad village within a malnad Taluk.
It is cut off from the rest of the Sorab Taluk by the river, Varada. It is not bridged any-where near. The woes of malnad people are many. In these days of motar cars and aero-planes, a post office cannot be said to be a luxury, especially in a malnad tract. It is hardly fair to view such questions from a financial standpoint. It may be that the post office at Chendragutti is being worked at a loss. But what is it when compared with the welfare and happiness of the people of this malnad region. There may be no need to enter into further length. Without the least hesitation, the undersigned agrees with the opinion of the Amildar, who pleads for the retention of the present post office at Chendragutti. The letter under reference is herewith returned.
